Announcement: KWF Hilger and Richard Hough Ltd make a Technology Transfer Agreement

To whom it may concern,

Richard Hough Ltd and KWF Hilger have both looked back on over 180 years as proud manufacturers and latterly as the world's leading developers of innovative technology in the paper finishing, textile finishing and metal rolling processes.

Now these two highly advanced and technically competent companies have agreed to merge their technology.

KWF Hilger will now be offering the roll types SIMTEX™, ROBERTO™, SUPER-ELASTIC™, and SYNCAST™ from their Dusseldorf Plant along with their established cotton and paper filled rolls.

Richard Hough Ltd recommends that you send all enquiries to:
